JANUARY 2016

New 24-hour gate, hours announced

The Sisisky Boulevard Gate will again become the main access point here Jan. 19, now that construction of a new drive-thru Visitor Control Center there is complete.

The Sisisky Boulevard Gate will be open 24 hours, and the Lee Avenue Gate will be open 5 a.m. - 8 p.m. weekdays, and closed on weekends and federal holidays.

This change also impacts VCC hours of operation. The Lee Avenue VCC will be open 5 a.m. - 8 p.m. Monday - Friday. The Sisisky Boulevard VCC will be open 8-11 p.m. Monday - Friday and 6 a.m. - 11 p.m. on weekends and federal holidays.

Additionally, the Temple Avenue Gate, open only on weekdays, will now close at 1 p.m. and reopen from 4-6 p.m. for outbound traffic only.

“The hours are changing again because the VCC construction project that began in January 2015 is complete and the Sisisky Boulevard Gate is returning to main gate status,” said Capt. Brian A. Bishop, Provost Marshal Office operations officer.

NEW CSM reports to CASCOM

Command Sgt. Maj. Nathaniel J. Bartee Sr. became the top enlisted leader of the Combined Arms Support Command and Fort Lee at a Dec. 18 ceremony in Wylie Hall auditorium. He replaced CSM Terry E. Parham Sr. who retired with just under 33 years of active duty service.

Hailing from Quitman, Ga., Bartee is a 30-year Army veteran who last served as the CSM for the 1st Theater Sustainment Command at Fort Bragg, N.C. He started his Army career as a wheeled vehicle driver and, over the past decade, has served in a variety of senior enlisted positions including 13th Sustainment Command G-3 sergeant major, Fort Hood, Texas; CSM of the 15th Sustainment Brigade, Fort Bliss, Texas; and CSM of the 402nd Army Field Support Brigade, a position he assumed while deployed to Kuwait in support of Operation Enduring Freedom.

Bartee’s wide range of operational experience is among the primary reasons he was selected to become the Sustainment Center of Excellence CSM, according to Maj. Gen. Darrell K. Williams, CASCOM and Fort Lee commanding general, who presided over the change of responsibility ceremony. Read more.
