Fort Lee Offers Music Performances in Community Schools

Fort Lee is proud to present the Music In Our Schools Program for 2016.

The 392nd Army Band is now accepting requests from area schools for performances in March and April. During Music In Our Schools, the 392nd Army Band provides entertaining performances for students of all ages.

To request a performance, send an email listing two possible performance dates to ArmyFortLee.PAO@mail.mil no later than February 12.

The band will then develop a schedule to visit as many schools as possible. Their performances, usually an hour long, will be patriotic, educational and fun for your students.

Community invited to Fort Lee Culinary Arts Event

Fort Lee is happy to announce the 41st Military Culinary Arts Competitive Training Event is open to the public March 5-10, 2016 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Fort Lee Post Field House. Admission to this event is free.

The competition features hot food challenges, live cooking competitions, displays including chocolate tallow and sugar sculptures and more. Individuals will compete for the Armed Forces Student Chef of the Year and the Senior Chef of the Year. To see a short video preview, visit <https://www.facebook.com/army.culinary>

Schools and large groups are welcome to visit the competition March 5-10. For more information, see the event flyer. To obtain the group request form, email ArmyFortLee.PAO@mail.mil.
